WITH THE CHANGE OF SEASONS NOW UPON US, EAST COAST HOME + DESIGN ASKED SOME OF OUR FAVORITE DESIGNERS TO SHARE THEIR COLOR CHOICES FOR THE SEASON.

FALL INTO

Ann & David Sutherland

TUSCAN COLORWAY One of the favorites in a new collection called Urban Jungle from Perennials Fabrics

ANN SUTHERLAND ON THE COLORWAY TUSCAN:

"Tuscany! The scenery, the flavors, the smells and oh, the colors! I am always inspired by these things but this hue, Tuscan, takes me directly to Italy. The buildings have this warm rustic color imbedded in their bones. It is so sensual and romantic. We just made this a MUST to include in our newest collection that is perfect for the garden in any region, it is the color of the earth".

DAVID SUTHERLAND ON THE YACHT FINISH:

"Pale blonde woods like maple and birch look good in sunny, coastal environments, while darker woods like walnut and mahogany show off antiques well. They have their place. But we've done something really special here. We've used a high gloss marine grade varnish, applied in 12 coats with sanding and polishing between each coat on our natural teak and created a beautiful rich color and finish that is hard to match. It's got this amazing depth and honey-hued, warm look to it. I think it works incredibly well indoors or outdoors. It really glows with colors that complement the quality of light in the fall months".
