It's good to know what to do when designing your home, but it's just as important knowing what not to do. If a beautifully designed home is the destination, you need to know where the wrong turns are along the way. The Dallas Design District can help keep you on the right path.

Trends

Trends are fun. Adding something from this year's trends can rejuvenate your home's aesthetic. But throwing in ALL the trends and the kitchen sink equals trouble, aka a confused and jumbled mess. Rather than mix in all this year's trends, such as butterfly wallpaper, mixed patterns and materials, faux finishes and Greenery-colored everything, pick one to add to your existing décor. Draw inspiration from the showroom at David Sutherland.
